Dedication

To you, Mr. Milton Kronick, we, the Class of 1965, dedicate our yearbook. We will remember you not only as a teacher, but also as a friend. Your hard work as Senior Class adviser and Annual adviser has been appreciated by all, and though these words are few in number, they express our deep gratitude.

Lis Pedersen

Lis came from Denmark to become a member of the class of '65 as our foreign exchange student. She has become a real part of our class and is busy in student council and GAA. She is an active member of dramatics and played her part in "That's My Cousin" like a "pro." Lis headed the refreshment committee for our Christmas formal and was presented with a class ring from the senior class. We hope Lis considers her stay in Brecksville memorable - because we know we'll miss a hard working member of the class of '65!

CONFERENCE

The 1964 Baseball Season inaugurated the formation of a new league: the Cuyahoga Conference.

Season Highlights

Coach Vadini feels light after Solon

BRECKSVILLE 20 BEDFORD 0

The first game is always a big one because one wonders what the team will do when the games count. Paced by Allan Ippolito's long run, which provided confidence and inspiration, we went on to defeat Bedford in convincing style.

BRECKSVILLE 12 WARRENSVILLE 8

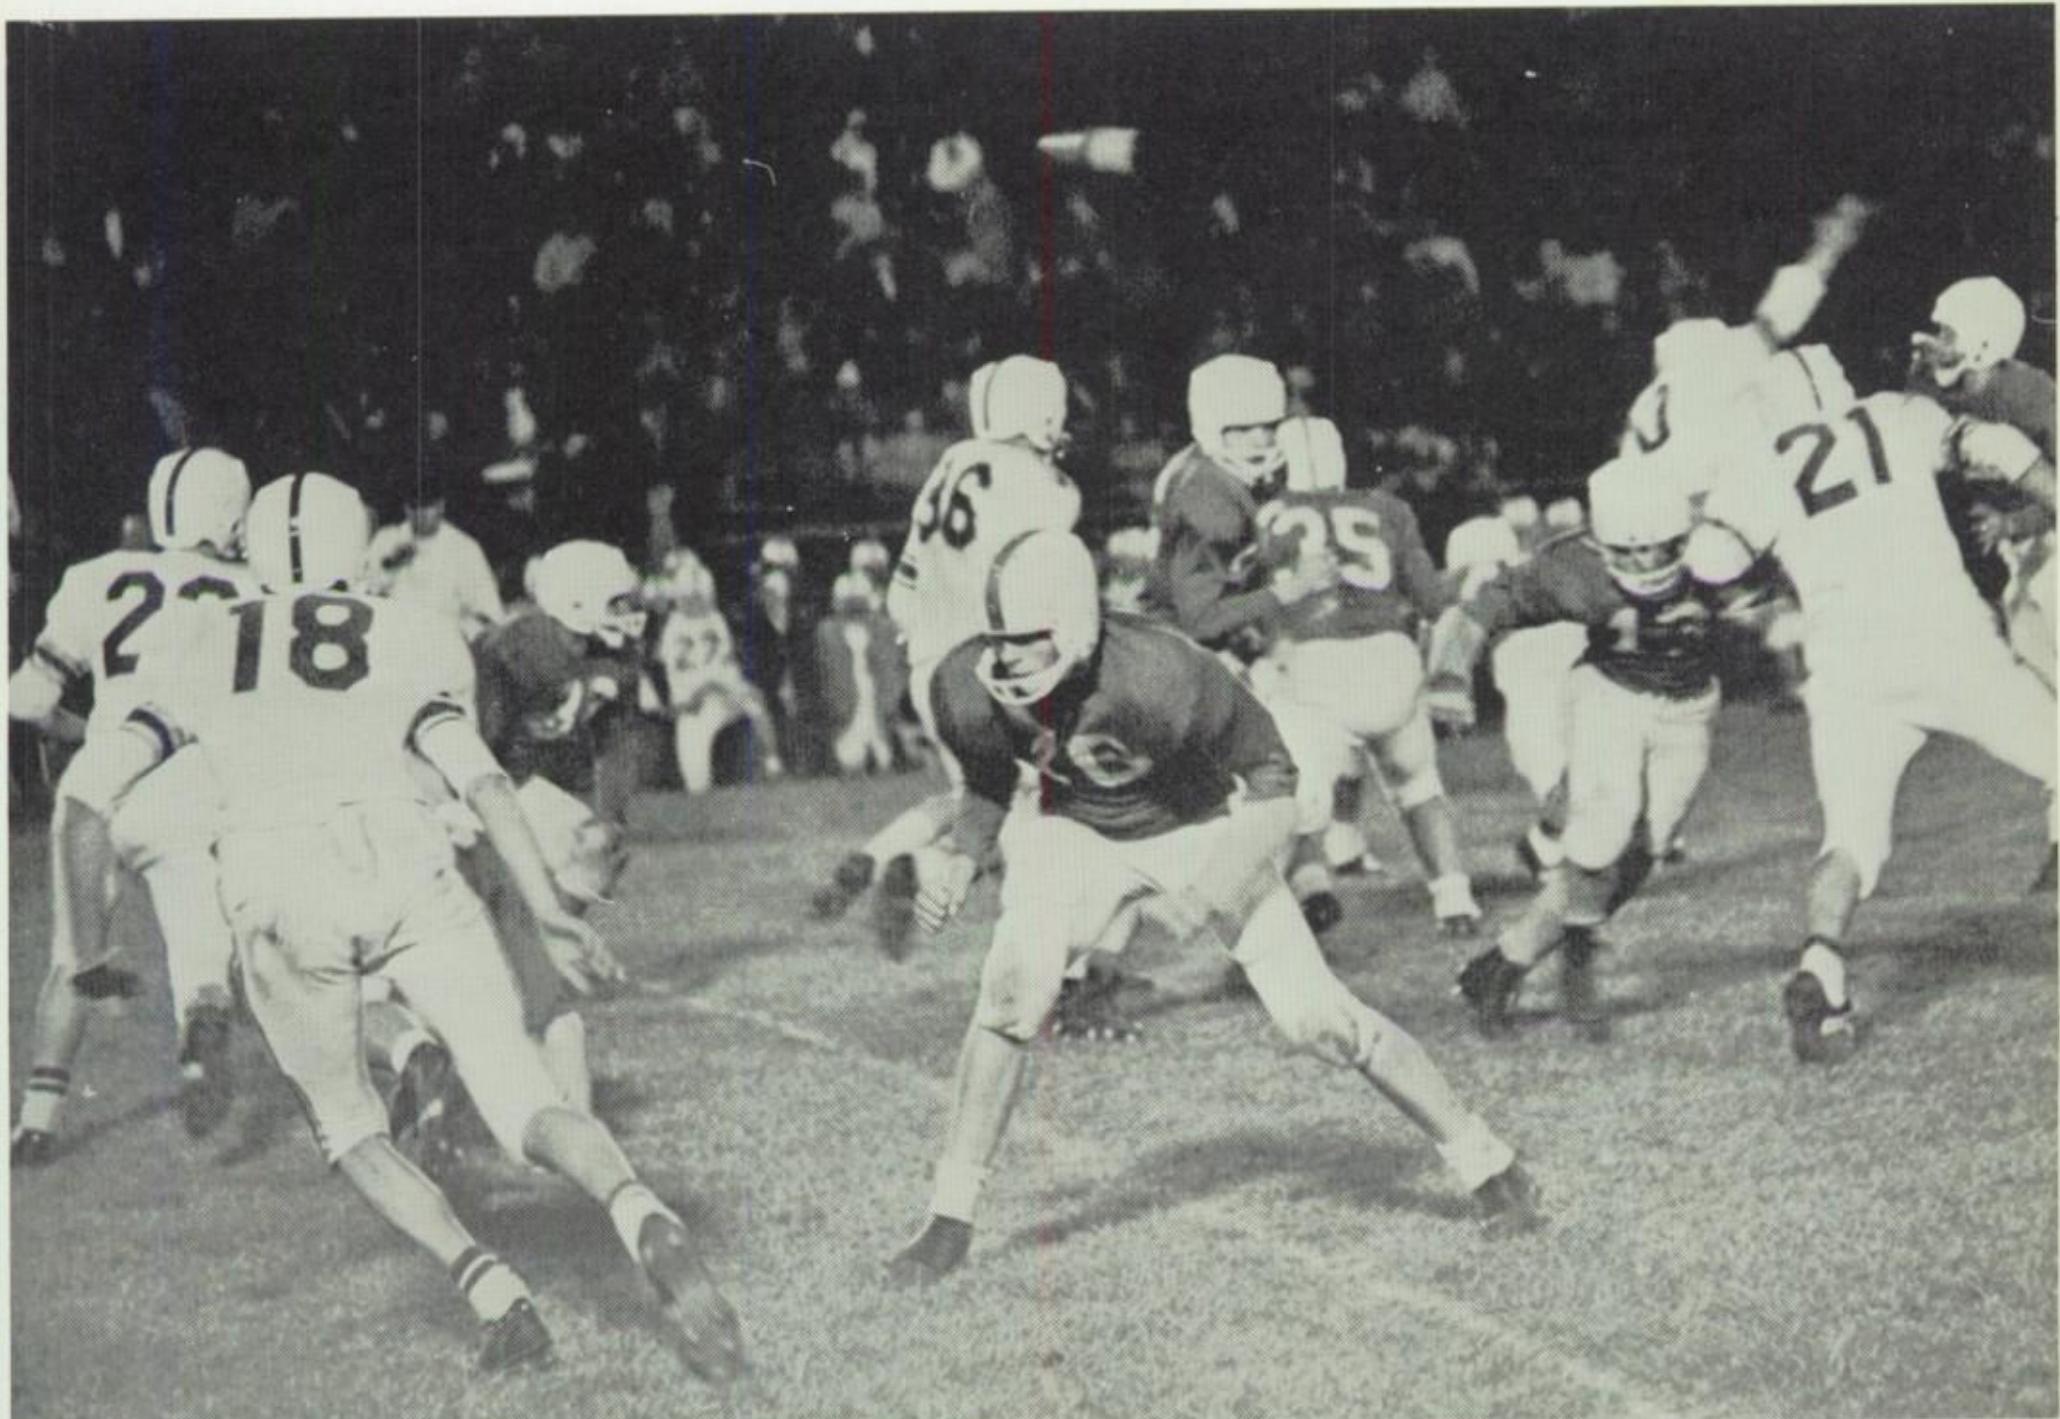

We went into the den of the Tigers and were treated roughly. Possibly the first score came too easily, because we had difficulty after that. Don Spencer's key tackle of their quarterback on our own 12 yard line in an important "fourth down and inches" situation was the turning point. The boys then showed that they could come from behind.

Bruce Boguski almost gets away again

BRECKSVILLE 30 CUYAHOGA HTS. 6

Heights was set to win or tie the championship in this crucial game. After the exciting first half of this Homecoming Game, our boys took charge and played a determined second half to win. Don Spencer gave a tremendous performance as he raced for three touchdowns. The defense should get much credit because they used some "jitterbugging" tactics which helped confuse their forward wall.

Bill Polak is found in a typical pose of "blasting" an opponent

BRECKSVILLE 34 BROOKLYN 6

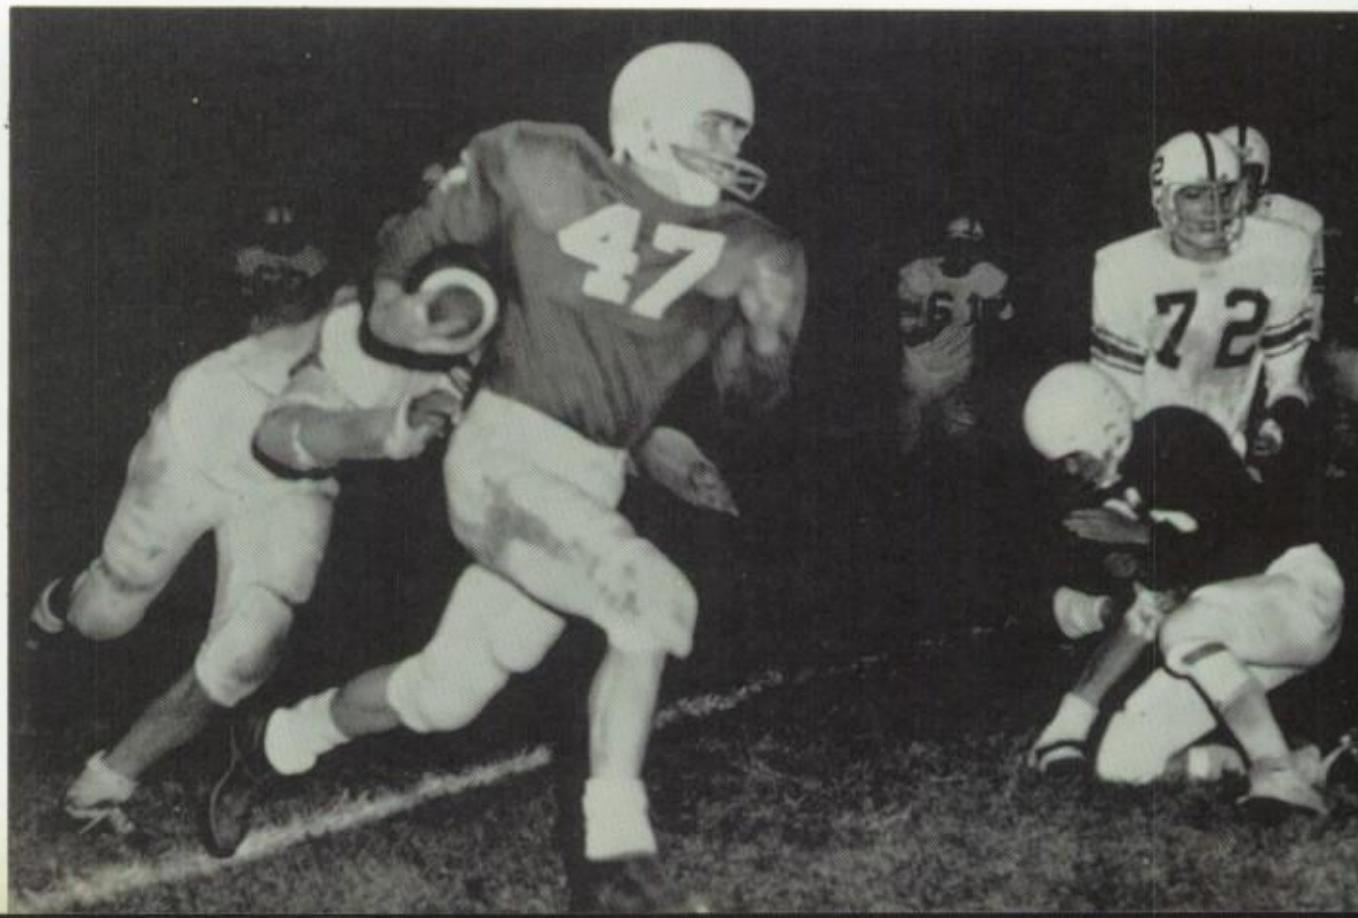

The Hurricanes were co-favorites with Brecksville to win the championship in the pre-season polls. We were shooting for our eighteenth straight victory. Our defense again proved "tough," especially Fusco, Odian, Herrick, Polak and Novasel. Brooklyn had a defense designed to stop our running. However, Bruce Branyan and Allan Ippolito found it advantageous to throw beautiful touchdown strikes into the waiting arms of left end Bruce Boguski.

Aftermath of nineteen straight

BRECKSVILLE 22 SOLON 8

It could not have been planned any better! We were going for number nineteen, and the Comets for their first undefeated season. We were champs of our league and Solon of theirs. As it turned out, we played one of our best games. John Pabin, Mike Caruso, Terry Bennett, Jim Majka, Bob Odian, Mike Moritz, Bruce Boguski, Ed Herrick, Bill Polak, and Jack Novasel led the inspired line play. Fog interrupted the game Friday, and thus the last seventeen minutes and twenty-nine seconds were played Saturday night. This has been a season we'll never forget.

The performance of the individuals this year far surpassed that of last year's harriers. Captain Greg Cook was close to the record time on the Gilmour Academy Course. His time was 10:19 while the record was 10:06. Two other outstanding seniors on the team were Jim Hannum and Andy Black. Jim started slow, but finished the season running very strong. Andy was a consistent runner all year. Lee Downey was the outstanding junior on the team. He often challenged Greg for the number one position. Without the help of these four, the team would not have finished as well as it did.

BRECKSVILLE WRESTLING 1964-65

The 1964-65 Wrestling Season must rank as the most outstanding in the history of Brecksville High. The varsity team not only equaled the best record in the history of the school (9-1), but were undisputed Cuyahoga Conference champions as they won both the percentage title as well as the conference tournament championship. One of the highlights of the season was when the Bees placed a strong 5th in the Christmas Tournament; Brecksville had four boys wrestling in the finals. The showing in the Christmas Tournament, as well as the addition of strong wrestling schools such as St. Edwards's, Parma and Bedford to the dual meet schedule, illustrated that Brecksville could hold its own against stiff wrestling competition. Individually members of the team distinguished themselves by winning championships, placing in different tournaments, and receiving various other honors. Three boys went through the dual meet season undefeated--Dennis Dorko, Mike Caruso, and Bob Odian.

The team will lose several outstanding seniors; however, it is hoped that this year's record is but a beginning and not the height of Brecksville wrestling prowess. Six varsity wrestlers will be returning next season, and the gaps left by graduating seniors should be filled by members of an outstanding junior varsity team which had a 7 win 2 loss record, and which also produced three champions and three place winners in the rugged John Marshall J-V Tournament.

The Varsity Basketball Team ended its regular season play with a fine record of 16 wins and two losses and its ninth consecutive year as league champions or co-champions.

This was the first year for the Cuyahoga County League, and Brecksville won it with a record of 13 victories and 1 defeat.

This season was a big surprise to everyone, in that there was only one starter returning from last year's starting team.

This year's team was a well rounded team showing good balance with a fairly strong bench.

Two of the starters were juniors, and ironically had the edge on the seniors in scoring.

The JV's finished with a very fine record of 15 wins and 2 losses. They came on very strong at the end of the season after losing two of their first four games. The squad showed good size with two sophomores standing 6'6" and 6'4".

Homecoming

Everyone will remember Homecoming 1964 as "the night the lights went out." The following night, however, the Homecoming festivities were carried on. Diane Welly reigned as queen; Cherry Dennison and Merry Armstrong were chosen as attendants. Head Majorette Melanie Olszewski carried on the tradition of twirling fire. A huge float, constructed by the Junior Class, also added to the excitement. The victorious Cuyahoga Heights game Saturday was followed by a dance at the school.

THAT'S MY COUSIN

The three-act comedy, That's My Cousin, proved to be worth the many weeks of practice on the part of the 18 members of the cast. The extra hard work of the director, Mr. Hutchison, and his assistant, Miss Miller, was greatly appreciated. Committee members also contributed to the success of the fall play, which was presented November 20 and 21 in the Junior High auditorium.

Fantastic - it only took one hour and fifty-two minutes to decorate plus 2,000 hours of planning!

Yuletide Chalet

The Christmas Formal, presented by the Senior Class, was truly an occasion to remember. Angelo Damalas' Band provided music in the setting of a snow enveloped Swiss Chalet. Such decorations as a huge ornamented Christmas tree, 16 snow-covered evergreens, winter scene picture windows, colored lighting, and ski lodge type Yimplau recaptured the Christmas and Swiss Alp atmosphere.

Winter Sports Queen

Karin McCreery and escort John Baraona

January 29, the night of the Winter Sports game and dance, was an exciting and memorable occasion for all. But it will probably be most remembered by Senior Karin McCreery, for that was the night she was crowned 1965 Winter Sports Queen. Karin and her attendants, Sue Hoffman and Marty Seidel, were chosen jointly by the basketball and wrestling teams. It was also Senior Night; seniors sat in a reserved section of the bleachers and cheered our team to victory. The queen and her court were honored at a dance in the gym following the game; the Doug Hamann Quartet provided the music.

Bob's
To a real sweet sharp
guy, with a panic of a personality. Here's to your BOB, you're one of the sweetest seniors around, but I'll try to treat Bob good. He's a as you probably know I'd fuck him bit difficult at times
next year of school and God bless you.

To Bob. You're a real sweet guy. I hope you have lots more years. Good luck
Linda

July 20th " The first day of the month I had no time to go to the post office until after the 2nd. I had to wait till the 3rd to get my mail. I am sorry for the delay.

To Bob
a real cool
guy wishes a lot of fun to be with Best of luck to you in the future
Bob

Bob,

Well, I guess sisters and brothers are supposed to hate each other and fight etc., but I'd say we've gotten along pretty good after all these years! I know I'll sure miss you when I'm away next year! Anyways, I hope you have as much fun in your Senior year as I've had. Be good next year when I'm not around to keep an eye on you. By the way, take good care of this book - it's priceless!

Yours,
Kaye

To a real great guy!
I've enjoyed knowing you.

Remember with you we're had in Study Hall. Good luck in everything

You do.

"P.J." (Ron)

P.S. I hope our friendship will last through the coming year.
